Winter Days.

Thursday, 26th – Sunday, 29th January 2017

The program of the upcoming Winter Days is planned as follows but please bear in mind that it will depend a bit on the weather forecast and therefore short-term changes of the schedule are possible:

Thursday, 26th January

Kick-off time is at 5.00 p.m. We will meet at the bar of the Hotel Laudinella starting with a welcome drink and then followed by having dinner together.

Friday, 27th January

Daily activities

Skeleton beginner school at Cresta Run (starts at 7.00 a.m. / Men only)

The first Cresta Run was completed in January 1885, since then it's one of the most thrilling ice runs in the world. Join Christoph Mettler, who will do the beginner school, and make the experience of an extraordinary adventure and race down the natural ice run head first with 10cm between your helmet and the ice channel, with a speed of 100km/h or even more. Due to restricted availability, the participation at the Skeleton beginner school must be reserved as soon as possible. Beginners pay CHF 600.00 for their first 5 rides and CHF 51.00 per ride thereafter. This price includes the equipment (helmet, boots with rakes, handguards, elbow and knee pads and a toboggan) and instruction for beginners.

Dinner

Location for dinner will be the “gourmet stall of fame”. Where the cows are kept in summer you will dine in winter. The restaurant “Kuhstall” (literally “cowshed”) is one-of-a-kind and well-known for its gourmet menus and excellent wine.

Saturday, 28th January

Daily activities

Snow-covered slopes in the sparkling sun. Sounds good? Discover the true snow sport paradise and spend the day with skiing in the fantastic snow area of St. Moritz. Or, join Martin Hütte when he tries snowkiting on skis on the frozen lake.

Sunday, 29th January

Daily activities

Every last weekend in January, St. Moritz is host of the polo tournament where teams from everywhere in the world battle for the Cartier Trophy on the frozen lake of St. Moritz. Become part of this unique experience and see the fascinating snow polo in an unique scenery.
